Police Find New Victim of ASKS JURORS Great Chicago Poison Plot Great Chicago Poisou Plot

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—A new victim of arsenic poisoning was discovered today by police as they investigated the activities of Mrs. Tillie Klimek and Mrs. Nellie Strumer, held in connection with the deaths of their husbands.

The latest victim was discovered in a Chicago hospital. He lives in the neighborhood in which the two alleged women "Bluebeards" reside. Authorities believed the new evidence strengthened their theory that a gigantic poison ring conspiracy existed among wives in that section.

The women, they contend, obtained husbands through matrimonial bureaus, had their husbands' lives insured and then killed them through slow arsenic poisoning.

Three of twelve bodies to be exhumed have already shown traces of arsenic poisoning. Three others are now being tested by chemists and the other six will be taken from the ground this week. All twelve were closely connected with the two women now held and their deaths were under mysterious circumstances.

Anton Klimek, fourth husband of one of the women under arrest, is recovering from the effects of poison which his wife, according to police, has admitted administering.

SCIENTISTS CLAIM CURE FOR CANCER

New X-Ray Apparatus is Used By Physicians to Show Treatment of Disease.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. - A new and painless cure for cancer, according to its inventor, Dr. Francis Carter Wood, gripped attention of the scientific world today. Wearing heavy lead armour, three doctors demonstrated a new X-Ray apparatus built for the study of the disease.

The demonstration took place in the Crocker cancer research laboratory at Columbia university and was given to start a nation-wide cam-paign of a week, to call the attention of the public to the treatment of cancer, a dis-ease from which twenty thousand people are said to die unnecessarily every year. Tens of thousands of small animals have been inoculated with the disease during the course of developing the new cure, which is almost perfected, according to Dr. Wood.

"Until death do us part" THE ROYAL Electric Cleaner stands by its owner for a lifetime. It grows to be an intimate part of the household in which it does its work. Many a wise home-maker has sworn to be true to her ROYAL, "until death do us part-

And here's why: Not only does the ROYAL apparently last forever, but its powerful scientifically applied air-suction over the full length of its 14-inch nozzle, gets ALL the dirt, and that, of course, is just what a woman wants—a cleaner that will get ALL the dirt. The attachments make the ROYAL the most versatile cleaner in the world. It will work from cellar to garret work from cellar to garret without complaint; sheer draperies, heavy Oriental rugs, mattresses, davenports, curtains—they're all cleaned thoroughly by the ROYAL.

Let the nearest ROYAL Man show you how the ROYAL

Gas Appliance Week November 13-18

"Gas Appliance Week" means that you have a little bit better opportunity than usual to learn about the conveniences that are devised for your benefit through the use of gas. At Horton's it means a thorough-going demonstration of Gas Ranges, described fully at the right, and a special offer that does not happen often.

Better Bedding Week November 13-18

Our conception of "Better Bedding Week" would be to place a NEVERSTRETCH MATTRESS in every home. We'd be doing a greater service to the cause of Sleepingin-Comfort than anything we know of. "Neverstretch" mattresses are made for SLEEP, not for a price. It's the only tufted mattress than keeps its shape. Price, $18.

18-In. Roaster FREE!

With Any Range, Regardless of Price

"Gas Appliance Week" will have meant a great deal to Santa Ana housewives before we are through with it. For one thing, it means that any Gas Range in the Horton store will be delivered to your home for $1.00 cash, the balance on easy payments. Besides that, we will give you FREE with any Gas Range an 18-inch oval roaster, self-basting, enameled in a dark blue granite. Naturally, this offer is good for this week only.

Mrs. M. J. Merchmont will cook for you on "The Wedgewood"

Enameled Roaster Free

This offer is made in recognition of "Gas Appliance Week," and for the purpose of placing in yur home a Gas Range of proven worth and an article of common usefulness. This roaster is self-basting, enameled in a dark blue granite. IT IS ABSOLUTELY FREE!

Mrs. Marchmont, who is a famous cook, will have many interesting demonstrations of cookery to show you this week. We have secured her from the Sperry factory and so she will naturally use Sperry products.

All her cooking will be done on the "Wedgewood" range, a Pacific Coast-made range, built to secure the best results in our climate.

We invite you to her daily demonstrations and hope that they will be valuable to you.

High Oven Range, $39

The range shown in the first illustration above is a most remarkable value. It is a high oven range with four burners, has a cast iron door jamb, a door panel made of snow white porcelain, and a large oven. $1.00 delivers it this week-and you get the Roaster FREE!

Mr. Hamil's guests were invited for a 6:30 dinner but no indication was given them of the evening of enjoyment which was to follow other than that it would be a merry one with something doing every minute.

The hint proved true and after the dinner which was so complete that one member declared the host had provided everything in the alphabet, the men who gather at the club scarcely knew which effects the greater with the courter was the courter with the courter was the courter with the courter was the c fare;

ABNER DOBLE'S MASTER MOTOR CAR WILL BE ON DEMONSTRATION

The Doble Steam Motor Car will be demonstrated and displayed Thursday, November 16th at 113 N. Main Street, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

For twelve years Abner Doble placed his unusual mechanical genius to the task of solving the problem of the steam automobile with the "bugs" of a pilot light, a troublesome boiler, stops for water and without the annoyance of waiting several minutes to get up steam. The Doble Steam Car that will be on demonstration sets new standards in the motor car industry. This car meets fully each of the stringent requirements of Abner Doble, whose ideal of a motor car is so high that a new set of standards is necessary to gauge its worthiness. The Doble Car is so superior in its construction, so simple in its design that the power plant of this marvelous motor car is guaranteed for 100,000 miles.

Without adjustment the Doble Steam Car can use any grade of fuel; gasoline, kerosene, distillate are equally efficient. In economy it excells any comparable car. A pint of oil in 500 miles is the consumption of this car. Through the exclusive electric control feature covered by the Doble patents the Doble Car generates steam in a few seconds from "cold" by simply turning a switch. Advance the throttle and the car glides silently and easily into motion.

Bonds That Fluctuate Least in Value

The average bond customer usually expects as good a price at least as he paid in event of necessity to selland he cannot be expected to have full knowledge of the fundamental conditions that regulate bond values.

Hence, it is the purpose of the First National to procure for its customers those types of bonds that fluctuate least in value.

RESTORED

An Announcement

The Central Pacific Railway lines are to be separated from the stock ownership and operating control of the Southern Pacific Company of Kentucky, in accordance with the mandate of the United States Supreme Court of May 29, 1922. The Court's decision now goes to the United States District Court of Utah, where the details of the separation of the two properties will be formulated.

The Court's decision means the beginning of an era of active railway competition in California. This, in turn, means the opening of a period of intensive development, of growth in population and production, never before known in this State.

The Union Pacific has consistently stated that its primary interest is an independent Central Pacific for its connection at Ogden, free and untrammeled, so that it can co-operate with the Union Pacific in providing a high grade of transportation service and in aiding the development of this territory. Such co-operation will insure a transcontinental route eastward through Ogden which will provide active competition with all other transcontinental routes.

The Union Pacific henceforth purposes to develop its legitimate interests in California. It confidently relies upon the justness and fairmindedness of the citizens of this State. It asks for nothing more.

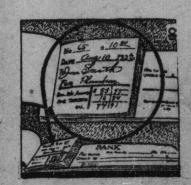

In the view of those sincerely interested in the upbuilding of California the Supreme Court's decision is a great public victory. Transportation facilities will be increased: There can be no deterioration of those facilities. The Supreme Court has safeguarded the public interest by providing that THERE WILL BE NO DISRUPTION OF EX-ISTING TRAFFIC ROUTES AND SERVICE.

The basis for rates into and out of California will remain unchanged. On business between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific in California, the one-line basis for computing rates should be continued. The Union Pacific, if it should come into control of the Central Pacific, commits itself in advance to this policy.

There will be no non-essential duplication of facilities. But there will be legitimate and timely expansion of facilities to meet the ever-increasing public demand.

Do you know that Santa Ana has a college? Do you know that that college is a branch of the University of California giving courses such as are given at the University of California for freshmen and sophomore students?

Santa Ana has a college—the Santa Ana Junior College. is a part of the University of California. Anyone, regardless of age, may take these college courses. Instructors of this college are certified by the University of California. In training and ability they rank with college instructors.

In order that residents of Orange county may get a better idea of what the Santa Ana Junior College is, what its purposes are, what opportunities it offers, who make up its faculty—in brief, what the college is and means to the community, a series of articles has been prepared. The University is almost unbear ably crowded, many classes contain hundreds of students. One lass in history last year had here than 1200 members enroll-possibly unweildy. They must be split into sections which are often rceled out among inexperienced raduate students, and the results are unsatisfactory alike to students and instructors. The state university used all its influence to get the junior college bill

The members of the state legislature were anxious to pass the bill because they were convinced that the young people of the state can be more economically educated in junior colleges than in the state university.

Age a Consideration legislators took into con sideration, too, the fact that boys and girls are finishing high school much younger than they did formerly. Members of the legislature believed that it is for the public good that these younger students should remain at home until they are more mature when they finish high

After the Santa Ana Junior College was re-established according to law by the election held last March it applied for affiliations with the State University. Eleven professors came down from Berkeley to investigate the courses of study, the faculty, the library, laboratories and general equipment and plan of the local institution.

They came singly and in groups and spent days visiting classes, talking with faculty members and making investigations. said many complimentary things and departed.

Records are Good Careful statistics kept at Berkeley and at Stanford show that tudents from junior coHeges have made better average records than those taking the four years in the big universities. All the students graduated from here have made creditable records in their advanced work. Some have been brilliant in their achieve-ments. They have won the coveted gold key of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society; they have edited the college papers; they have represented their universities in debates, plays and on athletic teams; they have won fellowships and been elected to fra-ternities and sororities. Sometimes an institution with small beginnings grows into large proportions. Month by month and year by year its usefulness grows. Almost without the knowledge of those the institution serves, it has become an institution of real importance.

This is the way it has been with our junior college. Its development has been rapid, and its suc- If so, you would consider Orange County. is cause for congratulation.

One point that is to be made in the series is that A vote of the kind, declares the Enterprise, ought the college holds itself forth to serve men and to be advertised. The Enterprise says: women of all ages. The courses offered at the college are not offered to recent graduates of high schools alone; they are offered to residents of the county who may or may not be high school graduates, who may or may not have finished high school within recent years, who may or may not have time to take all of the courses offered.

It is to be pointed out that registrations will be received for one or two courses, as well as for full courses. The man or woman who is unable to attend college for a full course may find it possible to take one or two subjects, and thus while keeping up business or home activities get the touch of college study that he or she has long desired but has never had opportunity to get.

The college is fortunate in having a faculty such as it has. The personnel is indeed strong, and the opportunities offered by the college are enhanced thereby.

The county, according the excellence of the work done at the college, and to unofficial returns, gave 13,276 votes for the act and 5,209 against.

The Enterprise respectfully suggests that a city or a county that polled a large vote in favor of the Wright Enforcement Act has something that it can well afford to advertise throughout the country. Should the final count show that act has been defeated in the state, there is likely to go out a report over the east that Cali-fornia is notoriously wet. As a matter of fact, there are many counties in the southern part of the state, most of them, in fact, where the vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the enforcement and upholding the constitution. Riverside county was a leader in this respect. We submit that the fact is one worth calling to the attention of prospective homeseekers.; We are certain that there is no community that is proud enough of a wet majority to advertise the fact abroad.

Will Keep Initiative

Riverside Press California voters have no idea of giving up the initiative and referendum. That is made very clear We believe that the Junior college ought to be by the decisive majority given against Amendment No. 27 that would have raised the number of signa-tures necessary for initiative measures relating to revenue and taxation from eight to fifteen per cent.

In reviewing the recent address of Harry F. At-wood of the Better America Federation in Riverside, the Press challenged the opponents of direct legislation to put the matter to a test; and in a limited way they did so in proposing No. 27. The result is not such as to encourage them to try again.

Conditions were favorable this year, if ever, to secure some modification of the initiative in Cali-We had thirty measures on the ballot, many of them complicated and voluminous, and the reactionaries said: "Here is a horrible example of direct legislation; increase the number of signatures necessary to get measures on the ballot and thus encourage the movement to restrict this fad."

The Cost of a Boy

A boy who reaches the age of 15 years represents an invest-A boy who reaches the age of 15 years represents an investment of $12,000 according to Bishop Moreland of the Sacramento Diocese of the Episcopal church. Of this sum the father has contributed $3,000 and the mother $9,000, in the estimation of the bishop. The father's investment represents $200 a year for food, clothing, education, dentistry and other necessities of life. That will sound like a conservative estimate to the average father. Even the income tax officials have decided it is too little to take care of a decendary.

What makes a boy represent three times as much to his mother as to his father, the bishop said, is that she works for him at the rate of $50 a month for washing and ironing his clothes, cooking and caring for him which at $600 a year makes

There is nothing sentimental, it appears, in the bishop's budget. He does not even mention the fact that she sometimes risks her life bringing the young rascal into the world. nor does he count the wear and worry of seeing the youngster through teething, measles, mumps, whooping cough, chickenpox

"Back to the Open"

There is, however, a movement that progresses rapidly which may be called back-to-the-open-spaces. Around every large city are villages and groups of unincorporated communities that have only recently come into being.

A few years ago suburban towns grew up along steam railroads and interurban trolley lines. Now they spring up quite independently of the older forms of transportation. They gain their transport by gasoline-driven cars and since these may go anymore than the readiness of farmers to sell their lands.

In time a few of these communities will be absorbed in the cities to which they are attached. But most of them, we may believe, will remain as individual and self-governing and distinct as they are today. The automobile which has made them possible permits of the growth of other such towns indefinitely.

They may see their cities become merely a concentration point of factories, the larger mercantile establishment and the services that must be supplied by the police, librarians, the higher city worker who has satisfied
